SAVE THE 3000 STUDENTS AND 100 INSTRUCTORS FACING OUSTER !

3000 undergraduates - 3000 doctors, lawyers, technicians, teachers in training - will probably be dismissed from the city colleges, according to a report of the Board of Higher Education. The Bankers' Budget for New York City demands a $2,000,000 permanent cut in our already insufficient allotment. At the request of the Independent Student Ticket, as the opening move in its fight for student rights, The Open Forum Committee of the Student Council calls upon you to come to the Great Hall at one p.m. today, Tuesday, October 2, 1934, to discuss a campaign of protest. ONLY MASS STUDENT ACTION CAN DEFEAT THIS OUTRAGEOUS PROPOSAL ! !
