THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Security Council
Iraq

24 March 2006

Dear Mr. President,

Further to my letter of 20 December 2005 and recent discussions between the Secretariat and the Permanent Representative of Iraq, I have decided to extend the Office of the Independent Inquiry Committee (IIC) until 31 December 2006. The Office of the IIC will continue with the exclusive function of handling enquiries from duly authorized law enforcement authorities of Member States seeking to follow-up on the findings of the final IIC report.

I should be grateful if you could bring this letter to the attention of the members of the Security Council for their information.

Please accept, Mr. President, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Dear Mr. Morden,

I refer to my letter of 20 December 2005 addressed to Mr. Paul Volcker, in which I informed him of the Secretary-General's decision to accede to his request, as well as a similar one from the Permanent Representative of Iraq, regarding authorization for the Independent Inquiry Committee (IIC) to continue in operation until the end of March. I further indicated in my letter to him that the Committee itself would formally be disbanded at the end of December 2005 and a follow-up entity designated as Office of the IIC would continue until the end of March 2006.

In the light of the above and following recent discussions, I should like to inform you that the Secretary-General has agreed that the Office of the IIC would continue through 31 December 2006. The related administrative and financial arrangements, which are currently under discussion, would be finalized shortly and communicated to you.

Best regards,

Yours sincerely,
