NOTE TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

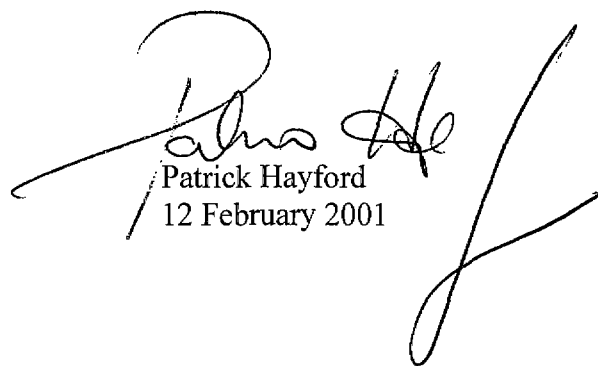

ECOWAS FOREIGN MINISTERS' MEETING IN BAMAKO

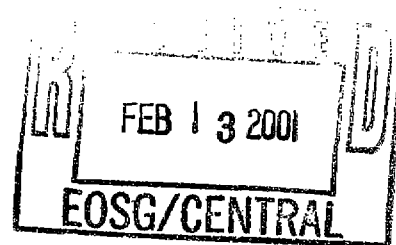

10TH FEBRUARY 2001

You would recall that ECOWAS Foreign Ministers met as stated above to come up with a coordinated position for presentation before the Security Council today.

According to Mr. Fall's preliminary feedback, the Foreign Ministers agreed to set aside the proposal for an ECOWAS border observation force; it was agreed that the proposal had been poorly prepared, and also that the whole idea was too dangerous.

With regard to the Liberia sanctions resolution, there were strong disagreements, but in the end a consensus was apparently reached that any sanctions against Liberia should be delayed for two months, and should be implemented on an incremental basis.
