His Excellency Kofi Annan
Secretary - General of The United Nations

Excellency

On behalf of the ten million citizens and the Metropolitan Government of Seoul, I have the honor to convey my heartiest congratulations to you on receiving the Nobel Peace Prize along with the United Nations.

It is especially noteworthy that you and the U.N. have been honored with this most prestigious award since this year marks the 100th anniversary of the establishment of the Nobel Peace Prize.

Indeed, this award reflects well-deserved recognition of the U.N.'s dedication and commitment, under your remarkable leadership, to preserving world peace, contributing to humanitarian efforts including the eradication of poverty and leading international efforts to counter terrorism, as well as other notable achievements.

In addition, the award also symbolizes the fervent desire of the global community for you to continue making fruitful contributions to maintenance of peace and co-prosperity of mankind during your second term of office.

I would like to take this opportunity to ask for your continuing interest in our efforts to ensure peace on the Korean Peninsula, and your support for our engagement policy toward North Korea. I also hope that, as we discussed during our meeting in May this year, the cooperation between the United Nations and its member nation's municipal governments will continue to strengthen in the days ahead.

Please accept, Your Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Goh, Kun
