Re: 2005 DPKO Heads of Mission Conference

1. Thank you again for your personal support and participation in the 2005 DPKO Heads of Mission Conference last weekend. The Heads of Mission, as well as DPKO officials, were sincerely appreciative of the interest you expressed in our discussions, and your engagement in the current challenges we face, given the evolving nature of peacekeeping. Most of all, we were grateful for your encouraging words in these trying times.
2. The full report of our deliberations under the two broad themes of integration and management and accountability is under preparation and will be circulated to your Office and the Heads of Mission next week.
3. In the meantime, please find enclosed as a memento two pictures taken with you, the Heads of Mission and our distinguished guests.
