Your Excellency,

I am writing to inform you that I will be in New York from 28 December 1999, to 10 January 2000 and will make myself available at your convenience should you require my further attendance.

I intend, upon my return to Arusha in mid-January, to continue discussions with the Judges.

The Appeals Chamber has scheduled various appeals for hearing in Arusha from 14 - 17 February 2000, including the Jean Bosco Barayagwiza review and the Amicus Curiae Brief by the Government of Rwanda.

A Plenary Session of Trial and Appeal Judges will be held thereafter from 18 - 21 February 2000.

While I am in New York, my contact numbers will be: 212-765-4170 or 212 588 0370.

I would like to avail myself of this opportunity, Excellency, to convey to yourself and your family, my very best wishes for the New Millenium and renew to you, the assurances of my highest considerations.
