CL/SS:

Please see the attached letter from the co -chairs of the Iraq Study Group thanking the SG for meeting with the group (by VTC). It would seem appropriate for DPA to draft an acknowledgement for signature by the SG .

Grateful your following up as necessary . (As this is not a scheduling matter, it would seem right for CL to receive the DPA draft .)

Thanks. ksk

Dear Mr. Secretary-General:

A note of sincere appreciation for your taking the time to join members of the Iraq Study Group last month for a thoughtful and forthright discussion. We enjoyed the opportunity to hear your views, and appreciated your candor. Your insights and expertise will surely inform and benefit the Study Group's effort to reach a forward-looking assessment of the situation in Iraq.

We look forward to providing you a copy of our final report, and will be in touch should we have any further questions in the interim. Any additional questions you may have regarding the Study Group and its work may be addressed to Daniel Serwer at the United States Institute of Peace at 202-429-3840 or dserwer@usip.org.

Sincerely yours,

James A. Baker, III
Co-Chair
